

IMMIGRATION IS NOW ACCEPTING NEW DACA APPLICATIONS & RENEWALS: On December 7 2020, immigration began accepting new DACA applications again. President Biden has also confirmed that he plans to continue the DACA program. Because courts could make further changes, we recommend consulting a trusted immigration provider for the latest updates before applying. See attached list of nonprofit immigration legal services agencies! While waiting for your appointment, work on COLLECTING PROOF OF MEETING THE DACA requirements, including the requirement of living in the US since June 2007. (see list below)

Initial DACA Requirements

1. Are now age 15 or older (or in removal proceedings) and were under age 31 on June 15, 2012
2. Entered the United States before your 16th birthday and before June 15, 2007
3. Have lived continuously in the US from June 15, 2007 to the present
4. Were physically present in the US on June 15, 2012 without papers (without status)
5. Do not have what immigration considers a serious criminal record
